1 The School

The École Nationale Supérieure d'Architecture Paris-Malaquais – PSL is located on an emblematic site in the history of architecture, in the heart of Paris, facing the Louvre museum. This site, shared with the Beaux-Arts de Paris, is a symbolic place where generations of architects who have shaped living environments both in France and internationally have been trained.

The school builds on a century-old tradition while being resolutely forward-looking. Since its creation, Paris-Malaquais has distinguished itself with an original pedagogical approach focused on experimentation and research. Supported by three research laboratories, it encourages students to develop creativity and critical thinking, free from dogmas. This environment is particularly suited to contemporary challenges, whether ecological or technological advancements related to artificial intelligence.

Students benefit from the support of nearly 90 permanent teachers and over 200 external professionals with diverse backgrounds, ranging from architects to engineers, historians, philosophers, sociologists, urban planners, and artists. These teachers work within six multidisciplinary departments on master level, promoting an open and complementary approach to nurture students' personal convictions.

By joining Université PSL since 2025, Paris-Malaquais also benefits from the resources and synergies offered by this prestigious network of institutions.

4 Transportation

Paris has an extensive metro and RER network. The metro covers the city, and the RER connects Paris to its suburbs. You can buy metro, RER, or bus tickets at stations, but there are also weekly or monthly passes that may be more advantageous if you plan to travel frequently.

6 Administrative Registration

As an incoming exchange student, you must:

- Be officially nominated by your home university to the International Relations Service of ENSA Paris-Malaquais-PSL
- Send an email to international@paris-malaquais.archi.fr with a complete file including:
 1. The completed and signed form (see appendix)
 2. A copy of your passport or ID card (if you are European, an ID card is sufficient).
 3. A digital ID photo (jpeg, less than 300 KB) for the student card.
 4. For European students: a copy of the European Health Insurance Card.
 5. Language proficiency in French: level B1 prior to arrival - (simple certificate issued by the institution of origin or language teacher, and no need for a formal certification)

7 Mandatory Civil Liability Insurance

Civil Liability Insurance:

This insurance covers damage you may cause to a third party (material, immaterial, or bodily) through negligence. It is mandatory for all students in France (average cost: €20 per year).

If you have not taken out this insurance in France, it will not be accepted. Send your certificate by email to international@paris-malaquais.archi.fr upon your arrival in Paris.

Options available:

- LMDE
- HEYME
- SMERRA
- SMENO

8 Health

Health Insurance (AMELI):

- ERASMUS Students (European Union): Please provide your health insurance card from your home country.
- INTERNATIONAL Students (non-EU): Register with the French social security AMELI upon your arrival: [AMELI registration](inscription AMELI).

- Health Supplement Insurance:

It is optional but recommended. It covers health expenses not reimbursed by social security. Each insurance offers plans for international students. Choose and join the plan that suits you directly.

10 Accommodation

Finding accommodation in Paris can be challenging. ENSA Paris-Malaquais-PSL advises you to use the housing resources of the PSL Welcome Desk: <https://psl.eu/en/lifeps/student-services/psl-welcome-desk>

Additional Housing Resources:

- Cité Internationale Universitaire de Paris : <https://www.ciup.fr/>
- Paris City Hall : <https://www.paris.fr/>
- CROUS Paris : <https://www.crous-paris.fr/>
- Financial Aid for Housing: <https://www.caf.fr/>
- Student Guide: <https://mie.paris.fr/>

These resources can help you find accommodation and settle in Paris.

11 Course Registration

ENSA Paris-Malaquais-PSL requires international students to register for a minimum of 12 ECTS credits and a maximum of 30 ECTS credits per semester.

Students can choose from Bachelor's or Master's courses, but it is strongly advised to select courses from the same level and year to avoid schedule conflicts and exam sessions.

Links to the course catalog:

- Licence (Bachelor): <https://paris-malaquais.archi.fr/etudes/p/licence/>
- Master : <https://paris-malaquais.archi.fr/etudes/p/master/>

Please note that the following courses are not open to exchange students:

Bachelor's Degree

- Bachelor's assessment
- Worker/internship and first practical training
- CNAM (National Conservatory of Arts and Crafts) courses

Master's Degree:

- 5th-year courses (Master 2), namely courses from semesters 9 and 10 (including PFE T9/P10/R10 courses)
- Practical training internship

It is not possible for a student to take two project studios simultaneously; you can only register for one project studio per semester.

Note: The course UE - Research Questions R6 requires a minimum French level of C1.

Attendance is mandatory for all courses. Three unjustified absences will result in a grade of "0" and the non-awarding of the corresponding ECTS credits.

You will need to verify that the chosen courses comply with the Learning Agreement required by your home university (including the number of ECTS credits and course contents).

Course changes may be possible during the first month of mobility only.

The student must inform the Bachelor's or Master's cycle manager if they withdraw from a course in which they were previously enrolled.

International students have the possibility to take make-up exams organized at the end of each semester in case of non-validation of a course.

Learning Agreements will be signed after your arrival, once all course registrations have been completed. Indeed, some courses have a limited number of places, and students are selected by the teachers.

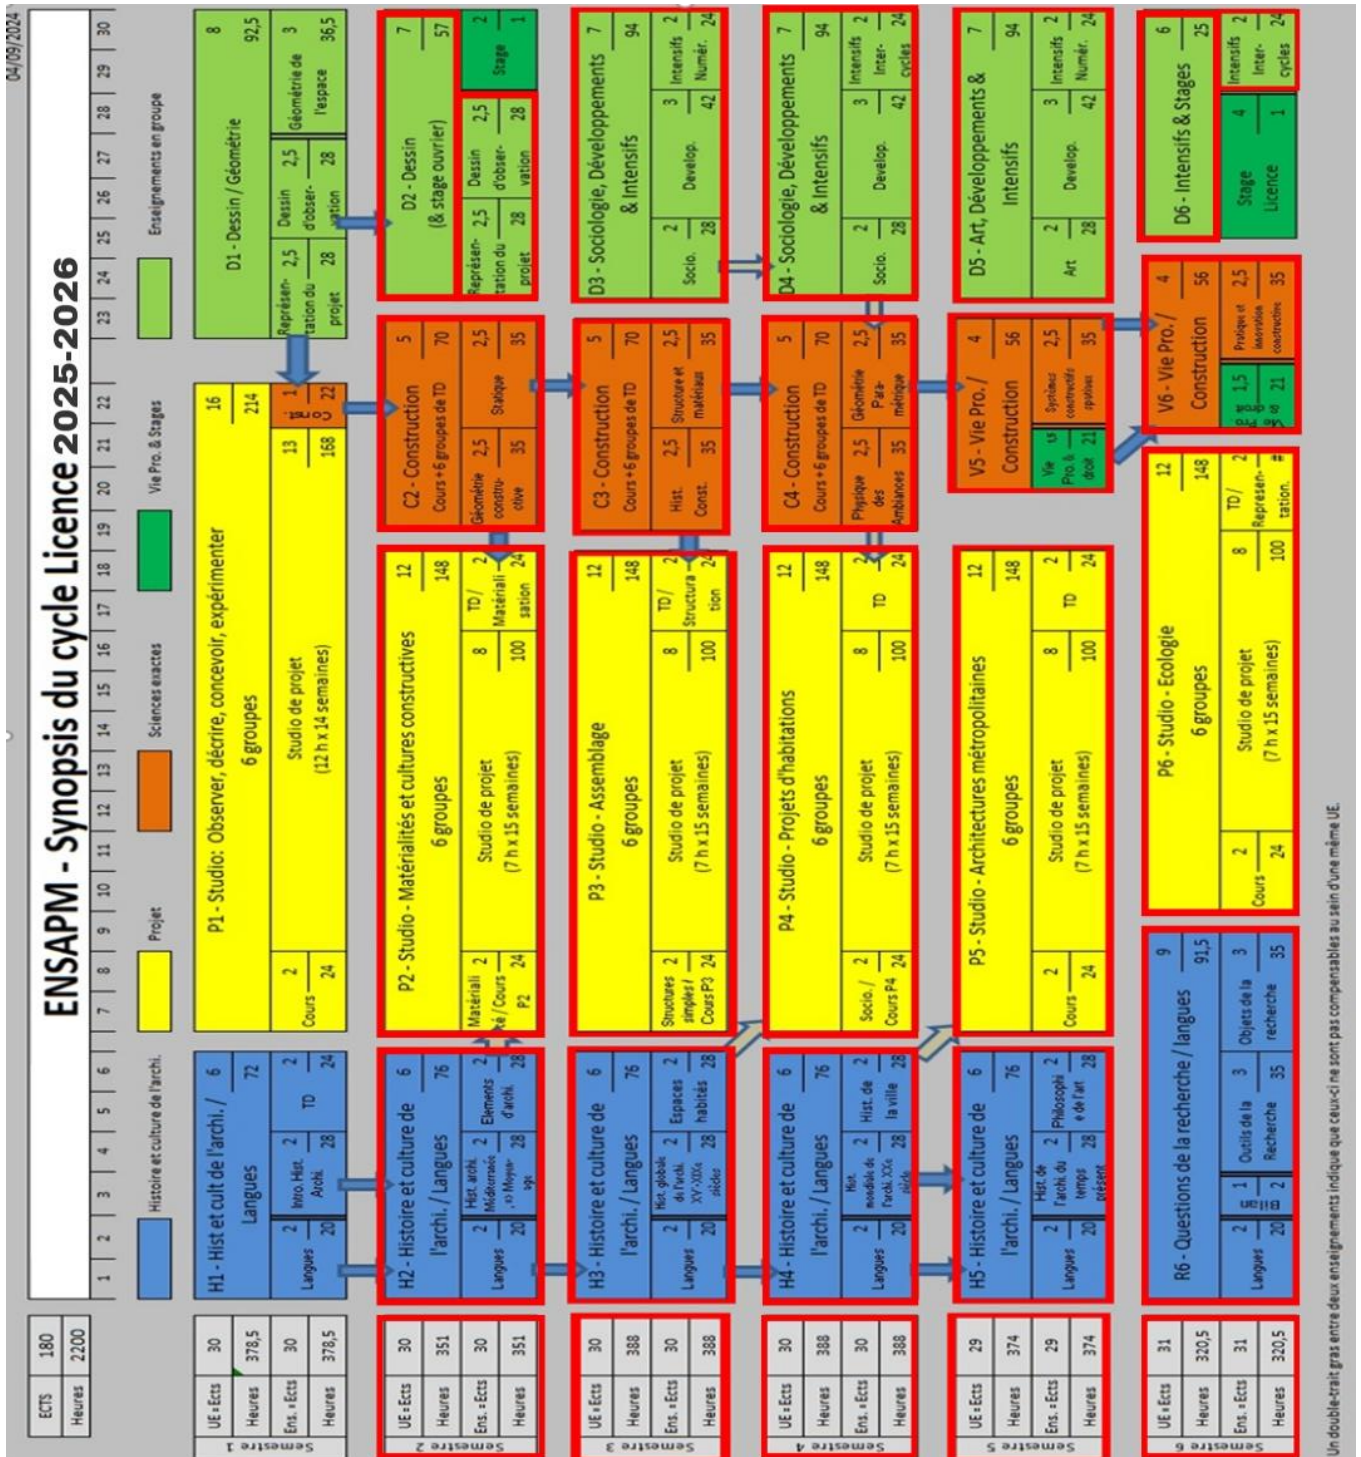

Important Codes:

- Erasmus Code of ENSA Paris-Malaquais: FPARIS319
- ISCED Code for Architecture: 073

If you wish to do an internship in addition to your study mobility with us, please note that ENSA Paris-Malaquais-PSL does not sign internship agreements for international students (Bachelor's, Master's, and all types of internships). For any internship agreement signature, please contact your home university.

12 Bachelor's Degree

The courses you can register for are highlighted in red.

Attention: This course synopsis is provided for informational purposes only. The curriculum is subject to change and will likely be different at the time of your registration in September 2025.

14 French as a Foreign Language (FLE)

Courses at ENSA Paris-Malaquais-PSL are taught in French and require a minimum French level of B1. ENSA Paris-Malaquais-PSL does not require a language certificate, but it is your responsibility to ensure you have the necessary level to follow the courses. Upon your arrival, you will have a mandatory week of intensive FLE courses.

Here is a useful link for our international students wishing to improve their French before their arrival:

<https://www.fun-mooc.fr/fr/actualites/ameliorer-son-francais-un-atout-pour-vivre-etudier-et-travailler/>

These are a series of free MOOCs to learn French, ideal for preparing to follow courses at ENSA Paris-Malaquais-PSL.

In the 2025 academic year, more courses will be taught in English as part of our "YES WE CAN!" program. You will receive more information during your registration in September 2025.

15 ECTS - European Credits Transfer System, Grading, and Transcripts

Here is the grade correspondence table at ENSA Paris-Malaquais - PSL.

On your transcript, you will need to consider the "local grade" = local grade.

The number of ECTS is automatically calculated by our academic services software.

18 IT Services

The service includes plotters and copiers for printing, as well as computer workstations with architecture-specific software (Adobe, Autocad, Archicad, Rhinoceros) and technical support.

All information for accessing the intranet, Taïga, Wi-Fi, and the copying service will be sent to you at our first meeting.

19 Library

The library of ENSA Paris-Malaquais-PSL offers a rich collection covering architecture, urban planning, construction, landscape, as well as works on the arts and social sciences. It includes:

- 25,000 book titles, including e-books
- 300 French and international journals, with 90 current subscriptions
- 600 videos and research studies on architecture and urban planning
- Student diplomas (MES, TPFE, PFE)
- 20% of the resources are in languages other than French.

The resource catalog is accessible online on ArchiRès (www.archires.archi.fr), qui which brings together the catalogs of partner libraries, including the Cité de l'architecture.

Students also benefit from PSL-Explore, the portal of Université PSL resources, providing access to digital resources such as Jstor, Cairn, Europresse, etc., and to e-books in the field of architecture.

Users can also borrow from the libraries of other national schools of architecture in Île-de-France and from the contemporary art library of the Beaux-Arts.

20 Workshops

Fabrication Workshop / FabLab: A fabrication space for making models with digital fabrication tools (laser cutter, CNC milling machine, water jet cutter, etc.), as well as technical and pedagogical support is at your disposal.

Photo/Video Workshop: A studio for photographing models, as well as photo, audio, and video equipment available for rent, accompanied by technical support is at your disposal.
